Right to Refuse Service Policy: In order to maintain a high standard of service and provide a safe work environment for its employees, volunteers, and client families, this Agency reserves the right to refuse or discontinue service to clients. Service may be denied to any client who acts inappropriately by disrupting the normal provision of services, or if a client's behavior or environment threatens the safety of the Agency's employees, volunteers, or client families. Inappropriate behavior includes, but is not limited to the following:

- Unreasonable demands for service
- Misrepresentation of the need for service
- Personally threatening and offensive language
- Threatening or erratic behavior
- Inappropriate physical contact

I swear or affirm under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Colorado that (check one):

- I am a United State citizen, or
 I am a legal Permanent Resident of the United States, or
 I am lawfully present in the United States pursuant to federal law.
